Although this has been a long time ago, there may be those with GCSO under Barnes still there. As some might recall I had people coming to the property one after the other--I had to go county to fix it on behalf of Nancy Vaughan's corrupt city government she's done a fine job of maintaining. One repeat monkey was Kim Maynard--I did not know him but did recognize his name on his work-van he used to keep coming as close to the property as he could, possibly in an effort to throw me in jail--if he could get me to do something stupid, anyway, like call his number on the van. I would learn later that Maynard had several vehicles. I'd gotten the Westerwood Neighborhood Association Newsletter on my doorstep for years--I clearly didn't read it closely although I read it all the same. I saw the same names, that I noticed, it was always the same people, whoever and wherever they were, so remembered whoever Kim Maynard was; other than that I knew nothing about him. I never saw him or his van the entire time I lived there, and did not think much of that newsletter, either--I had no idea the same, old names could run a campaign on anyone who would never be in the newsletter but they do run campaigns on people in 'Westerwood'--with help from the City of Greensboro. One neighborhood association cocksucker who kept coming to me was, as mentioned, Kim Maynard; it's too bad I missed his funeral. There's a lot people don't know about him except for someone on Guilford Avenue who told me he was a nasty bastard with them, too. I had no idea Maynard lived in the area, I had never seen him before--I was now seeing him all the time and repeatedly. Community Watch Gail Barger and infamous banshee Charlotte Reese had both just been served by county--they kept coming to me to start trouble, too; Reese was a notorious psycho--she came out of her house for years screaming at people because she was crazy. I avoided her crazy ass for years--until the day I couldn't avoid her so wound-up getting into a shouting match with her, too, like others had before me and after me, would it continue. Reese came out of her house to scream "You can't have that dog, that's rental property!" from her property, when I was on city property--that had me going to the city a few days later to put an end to it. What the city told county about me I'll never know but it was something along the lines of how I was paranoid so dreamt all this up, but the truth of the matter is that Charlotte Reese was charged by the GPD for "DC" when she flipped her lid on them, too. I have no connection to that because I cannot "make" someone do anything, even if they're crazy--I can't control someone else. Reese had naturally done that for years--to the P.O. after her dog chewed-up her mail they dropped in the slot in her door, to the repairman who didn't have a part, to the driver after her dog she routinely let run loose ran into their moving car, and later the public, but when you're white and do that things can turn out different--especially if you have friends who are also white who live in a predominantly white neighborhood clearly run by Kotis Properties. One of Reese's hobbies was glaring people down as they drove through the neighborhood--they weren't white because Reese told me and someone else her racial views all of which were rooted in the insanity she clearly lived with none of which is reality. While Reese screamed at and even went so far as chasing white people, all black people had to do was drive down Mimosa Drive and she'd bust-out the Treatment. She'd give them a good glare-down so they would know they were in the wrong neighborhood--they didn't rate so needed to know that. Nothing, however, came of that. Her other attempts at starting trouble, though, were successful. There are some who believed that the only reason Reese stayed outside all day was to start trouble--they appear right enough. I think Charlotte Reese paid Kim Maynard to start coming to me, too; Reese was prone to giving out cash for the slightest because she was crazy. It naturally attracted idiots some of whom stayed close. Like Kim Maynard, who kept parking in front of the property next to mine, he'd sit there, in the oncoming lane, looking at me, saying nothing, then drive around the neighborhood for another try--he'd come back and sit there in his van, staring like a freak. I pulled his sorry ass; he lied to the GPD claiming he was just driving down Mimosa Drive. The truth is Kim Maynard was trying to bait me into doing something stupid so I could get blamed, framed and slandered, if not arrested altogether. It was clear they were out to have me charged--I picked-up on that right away. It wouldn't be the first time that's happened--if anything, the City of Greensboro is a scapegoat machine. Gil Maness ran into a lot of trouble or so he told me; he said so as he remained angry about Community Watch Gail Barger putting his problems on blast via the Westerwood Neighborhood Association's e-mail "alert list" which is nothing but a slander machine for insiders only--the city does that so everyone will look at Maness and others as the problem and nothing negative about the city is talked about as much, which is great for the city but not for Gil Maness--who never chased anyone down the street screaming his head off like Reese did for years. Maynard failed to bait me into his crap--all he got was pulled but he came back around for another try when I asked him what he wanted, he stopped that time, claiming he was interested in mowing my grass--everyone knows Wrenn-Zealy has owned that property since who knows when so maintains the property, too. Maynard knew that too, making him the liar of all liars. He told me to "Call my number, pal!" as he took off in his van--had I done so, I would have been charged for making a harassing phone call or who knows-what as he was "just driving through minding his own business." It would have been said of me that I contacted him in hostility for no reason when in truth, he kept coming to me in an attempt to fuck my ass into jail; I think he teamed-up with Charlotte Reese but did not think of that for a long time. I thought much later that she probably watched the whole thing and paid him to do it; Reese loved conflict--she lived to stir the pot so probably paid Maynard well. I did not know Maynard lived on Friendly Avenue but found that out soon afterwards; I'd naturally take a left on Friendly for years to get home. After getting rear-ended and totaled in negligence on Wendover in 1998 I've never forgotten it. To this day, I don't like stopping to turn if there's a lot of traffic behind me. If I have to I'll keep driving, turn around and come back; little did I know that Kim Maynard lived right there the entire time I was turning there so I wouldn't get nailed again--after Maynard got stomped by county I saw him and Gail Barger talking together when I made that left turn again. That makes the two clearly connected; Maynard was apparently in the middle of mowing someone's grass.

He was standing with a lawn mower during a pow-wow with the Community Battle-Axe who perjured herself at the courthouse later; Reese attended, too, and also lied endlessly--both would have been better off skipping their cases but wouldn't have missed it for the world. Seeing Maynard talking with someone who had also been served by county like he had had me thinking Maynard must live in the area; I saw his work van parked behind his house shortly after that as I came through again. I had no idea he lived right there; had I known I would have told GCSO so they wouldn't have to go looking for him--as promised, though, they found him, putting an end to the city's favorite handy-man. I later saw Kim Maynard in Lake Daniel Park--he tore out of there when he saw me. I had not immediately noticed him in a vehicle and have no idea if that incident was intentional; it was nothing to talk about so I never pursued it--besides, he was out of there. It was a huge change in behavior, whatever it was. While the GPD claimed Kim Maynard was in South Carolina the truth is he came to the property multiple times like others did; looking to see what that low-life was up to in South Carolina, I found that Maynard was dead. That's fantastic, hopefully Gail Barger's next. I got an e-mail in 2019 I didn't expect--it said that when Charlotte Reese gets run over I'll be informed. They won't run her over and I won't either--I would much rather run over John Paul Roy--who, as the city knows, "swatted" me twice, Andrew Swofford--whose habits the city allowed made him the walking dead long ago, he contacted me, too--and Gail Barger who slammed others to make herself appear magnificent when she's really a slandering piece of shit rarely in Greensboro to begin with--those are the people I'd run over no problem, but I got that e-mail about Reese because all know that Charlotte Reese being crazy but/and white and well-connected got her out of a jam she created and kept going for years.

Because money wasn't a factor with county--I've never heard of it, GCSO also immediately understood that Reese was crazy before they even went out there--the city knows that, too, but has done everything to deny it. She even changed her name to "Sutton" which it apparently was the entire time to begin with; it's why she's still called "Reese." Ever since, I never trust a neighbor or anyone living nearby--you'll never know what they're not telling you or who they really are. Their name might be a lie, too, and that's a big lie. This entire scenario and scam is how the city does business if you're white and have "money." The city couldn't shut-up about "money" as this went on and got worse. The City of Greensboro's low standards of race and wealth make anyone a member of what is known and many have called "the system" even if you're fucking crazy like Charlotte "Reese" Sutton aw
